

A BILL RESPECTING VETERINARY SURGEONS

NOTE

This Bill enacts a new Act to be known as "The Veterinary Surgeons Act" which repeals and replaces The Veterinary Act, being chapter 299 of the Revised Statutes of Alberta, 1942.

The Veterinary Association of Alberta as heretofore constituted is continued under the name of the Alberta Veterinary Medical Association, with certain powers and objects dealing with the health of livestock and related matters, including the standard of veterinarians.

A council of management is provided for. The council will be the executive of the association, and will consist of five to seven members elected from the membership of the association. The president of the council will appoint standing committees from the association members. The council will be the disciplinary body of the association as well as the assessing body.

The secretary-treasurer of the council will be the registrar of the association and will keep a register of members. The qualifications for membership are set out in section 12. Members may be suspended for unethical conduct after an inquiry, but have a right of appeal to the Supreme Court from a suspension.

The General Faculty Council of the University of Alberta will conduct the examination of candidates for admission to practise veterinary surgery in Alberta; it may also approve of veterinary training schools which meet its standards.

It is an offence to practise veterinary surgery in Alberta if not registered as a member of the association, or to use the title "Veterinary Surgeon", "Veterinarian" or abbreviations thereof.

The onus of proof is on the person practising veterinary surgery to show that he is registered and entitled to practise under this Act.

Every veterinarian is required to make a return to the Minister of Agriculture of any contagious or infectious diseases treated by him, and to report immediately when any epidemic breaks out to his knowledge.

This Bill comes into force on the 1st day of July, 1953.

J. W. RYAN,
Acting Legislative Counsel.

(This note does not form any part of the Bill but is offered in explanation of its provisions.)
