Speaker's Statement - Pages of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta

The Speaker made a statement noting that 10 of the current Pages would not be returning for the next Session of the Legislature. He then read the letter dated May 31, 2001, he received from these Pages, which he felt applied to all Members of the Legislative Assembly of Alberta:

It is said that no one is taller than when he or she stoops to help a child. There may be many people who do not believe this to be true. But there are at least ten men and women who know it to be so. It is we ten, the Pages who are leaving the Assembly this Session, who write to you now.

Even as we write this, we know there are no words we can choose to convey the gratitude we feel to you and to all the Members of the Assembly. In giving us the opportunity to be Pages, you have given us much more than you know, far more than a simple, part-time job. Look around yourself the next time you are in the Assembly. Try to see things through our eyes. We see people on all sides of the House trying the best they know how to make the world a better place, one province at a time. These men and women are people of integrity. They have strong values and ideas by which they stand. They are not afraid to voice their beliefs, or to fight for what they know to be true. In a world of constant change, where the backyard is getting bigger and it feels like we are getting smaller, our time as Pages at the Legislature has reminded us that we too can make a difference. Day by day, we have learned new skills, faced new challenges, and confronted new opportunities to grow. We have become a little more confident in ourselves, and a little more secure in what we believe. We have seen cooperation between people of different ideologies as we watched the democratic process in action. For a time, we became part of something greater than ourselves, and in so doing, we realized our value as individuals.

This all may be difficult to believe. We know it too often goes unsaid. Most of you are probably unaware of the way that you have inspired us. Whether we later go into politics or not, the lessons we have learned here have shaped who we are, and will always be a part of us. We came to you as young, unsure people, and we will not be leaving with any more assurance of the specific challenges that the future holds for us. But now, we will leave with the certainty that no matter what lies in store for us, we are more than capable of handling it. We are more ready than ever to tackle our lives, maybe even the world, and all this is because of our time with you. We are better people for having been here, and for that we thank you. From the bottom of our hearts, we thank you. The opportunity you have given us to be Pages is one for which we will always be grateful, and one any young person would be lucky to share. Thank you, again. Wherever we go, and whatever we do, we will remember you, and this place where we learned so very much.

We remain forever in your debt.

Myles Chykerda, Grace Do, Tim Jolly, Jeremy Glick, Laura Gill, Cheryl Pereira, Sarah Hobbs, Ryan Zupan, James Hamilton, and Baldip Sihota

On behalf of the Speaker and Members, Mr. Tannas, Deputy Speaker, made a presentation to the Pages in appreciation for their hard work and dedication.
