Speaker's Address to the Assembly

The Speaker donned his robe. The Speaker thanked the Assembly for the honour conferred upon him with the following speech:

Thank you. I'm grateful for this honour. I'm grateful for everybody here, for the previous Speaker, the Deputy Speaker, and all the rest. I also want to thank the Member for Edmonton-Manning for putting her name forward.

Folks, despite the fact that I've watched this important place for about 13 years, that doesn't mean I won't mess it up. But with your help, I'll flail along until we get better at it. I'm committed to everybody on both sides, to honour the traditions of this place, to be nonpartisan, and to help us get through the business of the day every day. You know what? If we have a little fun, great. Not too much fun. Better fun than nastiness. When that happens, we'll deal with that, too. It's all part of what we do here.

I'm just so grateful.

Adjournment
